THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U. S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1-HUM

1. The village of Dono Dupeni has 107 families and is in the community of Ljuboine, Resan district. The political secretary of the 40-member Communist Party cell in Dono Dupeni is Naume Raikovski, and the secretary of the Youth Organization is Vlade Raikovski. The political secretary of the Ljuboine Communist Party is Risto Dimovski.
2. The collective was established in Dono Dupeni in November 1948, and all of the peasants were forced to join it. In September 1951 the collective had nine working brigades, and about 600 sheep and 115 cattle. The collective also had one old 3-ton Ford truck but no agricultural machinery. In 1950 the working members of the collective received 71 dinars in cash and 10 dinars in bonds.
3. The chairman of the collective is Josif Makarovski, the manager is Todor Dimovski, the accountant is Risto Angelovski, and the warehouse supervisor is Traiko Gincevski.
4. In July 1951 about 80 collective members agreed to ask to leave the collective. On 15 July 1951 Vane Vanevski Necovski, the political secretary of the District Communist Party, spoke to the members of the collective. Necovski told the members that the dissolution of the collective would not be permitted and that those members who asked to leave the collective would be persecuted. In spite of the warning about 25 members submitted requests to withdraw from the collective. All of these persons were interrogated by the UDB representatives and were told to withdraw their applications. All of them refused, but as late as 21 September 1951 none of them had been arrested.
